

Nick Jotterand

Producer

- 1993 Professional and linguistic internship during 4 months in a Holstein dairy farm in Hanover, Germany
- From 1994 Collaborator on the family farm in Bière
- 1989 – 1999 Professional and linguistic internship during 6 months in a dairy farm in New Zealand
- 1999 to 2005 Collaborator at the Swiss Holstein Association at 40% as a classifier
- 2005 Takeover of family farm, Holstein breeding and trainer of agricultural apprentices
- 2009 – 2018 Expert for the Federal Master's Degree in farming exams
- 2012 – 2106 Expert for the federal certificate of agriculture
- From 2017 President of the cooperative cheese factory in Bière
- From 2019 Delegate to the Gruyère cheese Interprofession (IPG)
- From 2021 Member of the Holstein Switzerland Committee
- From 2022 Member of the Direction Board of Holstein Switzerland

TRAINING

- 1990 – 1991 1st year of apprenticeship as a farmer, on Holstein dairy farm
- 1991 – 1992 2nd year of apprenticeship as a farmer, on Red-Holstein dairy farm
- 1992 – 1993 / 1993 – 1994 End of training at the Cantonal School of Agriculture of Marcellin, Morges, with the obtention of the federal certificate of agriculture
- 1996 – 1997 Obtention of the Higher technical vocational diploma
- 2001 Obtention of the Federal Master's Degree in Farming